Kiewit-Turner turns over fourth floor, progress at Veterans Affairs hospital continues

DENVER, COLO., FEB. 13, 2012 – The fourth floor renovation of the Clinic Building South is substantially complete. The floor was turned over to the Department of Veterans Affairs Office of Construction and Facilities Management and the Department of Defense Thursday morning.

As of Feb. 9, 33,334 cubic yards of soil have been excavated from the Diagnostic and Treatment Facility site, the equivalent of 2,381 truckloads carrying 14 cubic yards of soil.

Support of excavation is in progress at both the Diagnostic and Treatment Center and at the underground Parking Visitor South (PVS). Installation of the dewatering system at the PVS is more than half complete.

More information can be found on the project's website, www.denvervahospital.com.
